Summer Art Camp for Kids with Patricia Talmadge

$480 for one week

Students, ages 6 -16, will work together in a "one-room art school" environment with guidance from teacher Patricia Talmadge. Drawing, painting, collage and sculpture from nature, figures and items of interest using a variety of water soluble mediums on paper and canvas will be featured. Structured art lessons will be punctuated with snacks, lunch, and indoor or outdoor games. We also will explore other forms of art through theater games, music and movement. Bring a sack lunch, an old T-shirt, and a water bottle. Fridays will feature a pizza lunch. Maximum campers per session is 20. Sign up for one week or more; activities vary each week. Some snacks will be provided; a $25 materials fee will be payable to instructor at the first day of camp.

The Academy does not discriminate on the basis of age, sex, ethnicity or national origin. All of our instructors are professional artists who exhibit and sell their work. Group cooperation is essential in the classroom; The Academy reserves the right to refuse admission to anyone who is disruptive or in any way impedes the learning process of the collective group. No refunds are given for dismissed students. We reserve the right to substitute an appropriate instructor or alternate location when necessary. Please use good judgment when registering for classes, as The Academy cannot be held accountable for adverse reactions that may arise in some individuals even though all reasonable safety precautions will be practiced. The Academy is not liable for personal injury or loss of property of students enrolled in the school. Refunds are given, less $20, if the instructor is notified one week before the class starts. If you don't qualify for a refund, you may obtain a note of acknowledgment from The Academy Director to enable you to claim your unused tuition as a tax-deductible contribution.

Supplies: Your instructor will determine what supplies are appropriate in the first session or as noted in the class description.
